

SMART Procurement Demo Basis Document

Information communication construction license is a citation candidate for bidder qualification review.

Small business certificate is a required document candidate for company type review.

Business registration certificate must be submitted before contract review.

Contract officers should verify missing documents before deciding readiness.

If a requirement is not supported by corporation evidence, mark it as needs review.